So on Christmas Day, at 1412 hours, the Admiralty passed the order for the task force to put to sea at the appointed time for an operation against the reported convoy.

Three minutes later H.Q. Navy Group North/Fleet Command at Kiel sent the code signal: OSTFRONT 2512. And at 1527 hours 'Admiral Arctic' at Narvik added the departure time: OSTFRONT 1700 HOURS.

This signal, after being deciphered, only reached Flotilla Commander Johannesson on board his command destroyer Z 29 at 1637 hours – just twenty-three minutes before the prescribed sailing time. For the ships' commanders to discuss the details of tactical team-work there was thus no time, apart from the fact that two of the destroyers, Z 30 and Z 33, had to come all the way from the distant Kaa Fjord.

And the force commander himself was not around. Hour after hour the Scharnhorst's new skipper, Captain Fritz Hintze, waited for him.

Bey, in fact, was in process of returning from the Lang Fjord aboard the motor-minesweeper R 121 after replenishing his staff for possible action with officers and personnel of the Tirpitz, and all this had taken time.

During the trip the Admiral drafted his own provisional operational orders, which closely followed Schniewind's situation report of the night before, notably in its assumption that the best chance of success lay in using the destroyers alone, with the battleship holding herself in the background and only attacking the convoy herself 'under favourable circumstances'.

Bey was not to know that this very proposition had since been rejected by Dönitz and the Admiralty.

Finally, shortly before 1900 hours – that is, two hours behind schedule – the Scharnhorst and the destroyers weighed anchor. At the last minute a tug darted across to the departing destroyers and handed to their commanders their Admiral's orders.

Then, at 1900 hours precisely, both watches assembled on the deck of the battleship, to be addressed by the First Gunnery Officer, Lieutenant-Commander Walter Bredenbreuker. An enemy convoy, he said, had been detected by air reconnaissance headed for Russia, and the Scharnhorst was now on her way to annihilate it, to help the men fighting on the eastern front.

Bredenbreuker got no further. His speech was drowned by the cheering, which went on and on. A 'show' at last! No more hanging about with nothing to do.

At 1955 hours Z 38 (Lieutenant-Commander Gerfried Brutzer) passed the inner net barrage in the Lang Fjord, followed by the Scharnhorst, then Z 29 (Lieutenant-Commander Theodor von Mutius) and Z 34 (Lieutenant-Commander Karl Hetz). Half an hour later they left the outer barrage behind and turned into the Alten Fjord, where they were joined by Z 30 (Lieutenant-Commander Karl Heinrich Lampe) and Z33 (Captain Erich Holtorf). Rolf Johannesson, the Flotilla Commander, had hoisted his pendant in Z 29.

Even here, still within the fjord, the gale howled in the rigging. And even now, as the force was already putting to sea, there was a final dramatic conflict of views between the staffs of the different shore commands.

Towards 2000 hours the Fleet Commander, Admiral Schniewind, telephoned Berlin for the first time and assured Grand-Admiral Dönitz of his hopes and confidence in the success of the operation.

Hardly had he put the receiver down, than at 2009 hours he received a teleprint from Berlin carrying a personal five-point order to the task force from the Supreme Commander. Sent to the Fleet Commander for his information, it was also flashed directly to Admiral Bey aboard the Scharnhorst.

To Schniewind and his Chief of Staff, Rear-Admiral Heye, it was quite plain that Dönitz was now imposing a tactical procedure that differed greatly from the one they had previously understood was to be observed. Furthermore, the weather forecast for the operations area south-east of Bear Island was now to hand and left no room for optimism:

> Southerly gale, force 8–9, increasing, sea 6–7. On 26.12. veering to south-west 6–8, with heavy S.W. swell. Overcast with rain, visibility 3–4 miles, only intermittently improving to 10 miles. Snow-falls in Barents Sea.

'Poor destroyers!' commented Heye, and Schniewind nodded.

The thoughts of both were openly expressed by the deputy 'Admiral Arctic', Captain Rudolf Peters, in Narvik. At 1915 hours he had Doubtless the purpose of Bey's signal was to convey that even this second alternative was ruled out by the weather. Indeed, the fact that he communicated at all could only mean that he regarded the operation as hopeless and expected to be recalled – just what Admiral Schniewind at Fleet H.Q. had postulated.

As to the signal itself, thanks to communication difficulties between the far north of Norway and Germany, it did not reach Kiel till 0219 hours – five hours after being sent – and the Admiralty in Berlin not till 0356 hours. And when it did, no one understood its purport or was able to read between the lines. In the war diary of Group North/Fleet H.Q. someone wrote:

> The reported situation was known here and at the Admiralty, and had been taken into consideration. Delayed reception of the message has had no detrimental effect . . .

At the Admiralty it was presumed 'that the task force commander would decide according to the situation whether to carry out the operation'.

As Bey waited in vain for an answer, the Scharnhorst and her five destroyers passed the navigation point 'Lucie 1' and from then on were in the open sea. Then towards midnight the signal with the Grand-Admiral's five-point directive, despatched from Berlin at 1925 hours, at last came through. The order was couched in the following words:

> 1. Enemy attempting to aggravate the difficulties of our eastern land forces in their heroic struggle by sending an important convoy of provisions and arms for Russians. We must help.
> 2. Convoy to be attacked by Scharnhorst and destroyers.
> 3. Tactical situation to be exploited skilfully and boldly. Engagement not to be broken off till full success achieved. Every advantage to be pressed. Scharnhorst's superior fire-power crucial. Her deployment therefore urgent. Destroyers to engage as suitable.
> 4. Disengage at own discretion, and automatically if heavy forces encountered.
> 5. Crews to be briefed accordingly. I am confident of your offensive spirit.
> Heil und Sieg. Dönitz, Grand-Admiral.

One of the Scharnhorst's few survivors, seaman Günther Sträter, later quoted the actual words in which the captain passed on this order to his crew. At 0345 hours Captain Hinze called all stations ar in the Arctic. Winter attacks on the arctic convoys were hindered ice, snow and the long polar night. Top: The cruiser Hipper. entre: The destroyer Friedrich Eckoldt, lost in combat on 31st ecember, 1942. Below: A destroyer's iced-up forecastle.

information so vital to her via a land station – delayed, filtered, and very much second-hand.

Numerous post-war publications have stated that at 1100 hours on 26th December Admiral Bey and Captain Hintze received aboard the Scharnhorst an air reconnaissance report of 'five units far north-west of the North Cape', but did not understand its full significance because the Air Commander had expunged the important phrase 'amongst them a heavy one.' This statement (also made erroneously by the present writer in earlier publications) can no longer be substantiated after a close study of the records which have since become available.

In reality the Scharnhorst only received the BV 138's first report of 'several vessels located' after the Air Commander had forwarded this over the Luftwaffe-Navy channel at 1306 hours, when his signal was picked up at sea.

At 1341 hours the receipt of this 'highly unpleasant' report was recorded at H.Q. 'Admiral Arctic', Narvik, with the comment: 'The reference can only be to an enemy force which intends to cut off the return of our own force.'

Aboard the Scharnhorst the taking-down, deciphering and delivery of the report may well have required an hour longer. The surviving seaman Günther Sträter, already quoted, recalls that at about 1530 hours the Captain broadcast:

> Signal from the Luftwaffe. Reconnaissance plane reports enemy fleet detachment 150 miles west. Keep sharp lookout.

By this time the Scharnhorst was already heading back to Norway. For at 1224 hours, after a second attempt to approach the convoy, she had again come up against the British cruisers, and there had been another short and sharp engagement. This time it had not taken place in complete darkness, as in the morning, but in the same hazy half-light that had brought discomfiture to Admiral Kummetz and his Hipper/Lützow team a year before.*

The Scharnhorst's Chief Gunnery Officer, Lieutenant-Commander Bredenbreuker, incidentally, directed the fire of his 28-cm. [11-in.] guns almost entirely against the Norfolk, which was discernible by her muzzle flashes, whereas the Belfast and Sheffield, using a new, flashless powder, remained comparatively invisible. The Norfolk thus suffered two severe hits, one amidships, the other aft on the third turret, which was put out of action.

But the Scharnhorst herself was being straddled by the British salvoes, with range data clearly supplied by radar. The situation was so hard to assess in the confusing, hazy twilight that at 1240 hours Bey actually signalled:

> ENGAGED BY SEVERAL ENEMY SQUARE AC 4133. RADAR-DIRECTED FIRE FROM HEAVY UNIT.

The enemy were, of course, 'only' cruisers and destroyers; but Bey, in obedience to all existing orders and injunctions governing behaviour when faced by a capital ship, disengaged. Even as it was, the Scharnhorst's superiority was now only on paper. As the Fleet Commander, Admiral Schniewind, wrote in his war diary: against an enemy both navigating and firing by means of radar the German battleship had 'nothing comparable with which to counter'.

The fight for life of the Scharnhorst can be followed in detail from the signals traffic of both sides. As she sailed south-east at high speed towards the Norwegian coast, the British cruisers and destroyers had difficulty in keeping up, but retaining contact by radar, reported continuously to the unit 'DGO'. Many of these reports were monitored and deciphered by the German 'B'-Service, and so enabled the operations staffs in Kiel and Berlin to watch helplessly as the net closed in on their battleship.

At 1343 hours Admiral Bey sent a one-word order to the 4th Destroyer Flotilla: WITHDRAW! The commander, Johannesson, who had been searching for the convoy since forming his patrol line in the early morning, queried the order to gain time, only at 1418 hours to receive another short blunt command: RETURN TO BASE! The destroyers thus spent the whole day alone amidst the heaving seas, and never saw the battleship again.

At 1617 hours the British unit 'DGO' signalled that it had a radar contact with a target twenty-three miles away. The Berlin Admiralty grimly inferred:

> Since this unit has since given tactical directives to the other ships, 'DGO' is in all probability the commander of the cover force, namely the C.-in-C. Home Fleet, who has now taken charge of the battle.

Our Rhyming Optimist

By Aline Michaelis

I WONDER.

Though it was very long ago
You loved me best of all,
I wonder, sometimes, if you know
How often I recall
Your eyes, your words, that hour we had,
So strangely set apart;
I wonder if you still are glad
You held me to your heart?
I wonder if you ever guessed
How deep my love, how true,
Or if I passed like all the rest
Of that far year, to you?
I wonder why it has to be
Each life has many lives?
Of that far distant you and me
How small a part survives!

culminated in his receiving a special "Thank-you" badge on March 12, 1972 for his outstanding leadership and kindnesses toward the program. He was honored by the City of Chicago in 1973 by being elected to the Hall of Fame for his work with the Girl Scouts and Senior Citizens. Mr. Bartels was also an active member of the Golden Fellowship, often bringing special treats for the members.

Following a memorial service his earthly body was interred in Eden Memorial Park Cemetery. Along with his wife, those who are saddened by his departure are his sister Minnie (Tom) Davis, nephew Howard (Betty) Davis, sister-in-law Adeline Bartels and many, many friends.

FRED HINTZ

Mr. Fred Hintz, a member of St. Peter's all of his life, passed away January 17, 1980 at the ago of 60 years. Mr. Hintz never knew another church home as his late parents, Frederick and Florence Hintz, were members of St. Peter's. Naturally, their children were brought to Sunday School and to the Worship Services.

He made his confirmation on March 25, 1914, and on June 8, 1946 Mr. Hintz was united in marriage with Miss June Oksness by the late Rev. Henry Lambrecht. Their union was blessed with one son and three daughters all of whom have been active in the church. Mr. Hintz was a loving husband and father whose family meant a great deal to him. He always thought of others first and was willing to help them in their time of need.

Mr. Hintz was an employee of Illinois Tool Works for 40 years and was a hard and dedicated worker. His interest and career gave him the ability to fix many things around the home, too.

For the past several months Mr. Hintz was very ill but showed great courage in the midst of his suffering. He was able to be with his family for a few days at Christmastime. Pastor shared communion and meditative moments with Mr. Hintz while he was hospitalized.

Following a memorial service, his earthly body was laid to rest on Acacia Park Cemetery. He will be missed by his wife, son Fred, daughters Lynn (Gerald) Pozsgay, Janis (Joseph) Biggs, Sheryl (Michael) Kasper, sister Florence (Warren) LaGrand, brother Willis (Eveleen), many nieces and nephews.

A long and devout member of St. Peter's Church, Mrs. Gertrude Elke-Prince, was called to her Heavenly Rest January 30, 1980, attaining the age of 81 years.

Mrs. Prince, one of eight children, was born March 38, 1898, and was baptized and confirmed at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church. The entire Elke Family became members of the Church early in the nineteen hundreds, and were faithful in their attendance.

On July 24, 1920 she and Mr. Louis Prince were united in marriage by the late Rev. Henry Lambrecht. This union was blessed with three children, two of whom preceded her in death, the daughter dying at the age of one year. Being widowed, she had the responsibility of caring for her two sons.

Mrs. Prince was a devoted Christian person which brought on the desire to help others whenever she could. The Lord meant very much to her.

For the last several years, Mrs. Prince had been a resident at the Winston Manor Convalescent and Nursing Home where both Pastors ministered to her in prayer and meditation.

Following a memorial service, her weary body was laid to rest in Concordia Cemetery. Those saddened by her passing are the son Melvin (Helen), one grandchild, three great-grandchildren, two brothers, Chester (Clara), Herbert (Mary Alice), one sister Florence (Ted) Panos, many relatives and friends.

St. Peter's lost another pillar of the church with the passing away of Mrs. Amelia Schoeneberger nee Finke on February 17, 1980 at the age of 89 years.

Mrs. Schoeneberger was born and raised in St. Mary's, Ohio where she was baptized by the late Rev. Christian Badertscher, her grandfather and the pastor of the church there.

Schedule B

Showing estates, defects or objections to title, and liens, charges and incumbrances thereon, which do or may now exist, and against which the Company does not guarantee.

1. Taxes for the years 1933 and 1934.

The premises herein described are shown on the recorded plat thereof as follows:

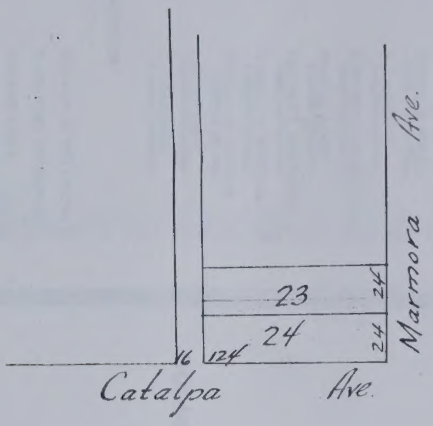

Conditions and Stipulations of this Policy

1. The Chicago Title and Trust Company will and shall have the right to, at its own cost and charges, defend the party guaranteed in all actions of ejectment or other action or proceeding founded upon a claim of title, incumbrance or defect which existed or is claimed to have existed prior in date to this policy and not excepted herein; reserving, however, the option of settling the claim or paying this policy in full; and the payment or tender of payment to the full amount of this policy shall determine all liability of this company thereunder. In case any such action or proceeding shall be begun, it shall be the duty of the party guaranteed at once to notify the company thereof in writing, and secure to it, when practicable, the right to defend such action or proceeding, and to give all reasonable assistance therein. If such notice shall not be given to the company within ten days after the service of the first summons or other process in such action or proceeding, then all liability of this company in regard to the subject matter of such action or proceeding shall cease and be determined; provided, however, that failure to notify shall in no case prejudice the claim of the party guaranteed if such party shall not be a party to such action or proceeding, nor served with summons therein, nor have any knowledge of such action or proceeding.

2. Whenever the company shall have settled a claim under this policy, it shall be entitled to all rights and remedies which the party guaranteed would have had against any other person or property in respect to such claim, had this policy not been made, and the party guaranteed undertakes to transfer to the company such rights, and to permit it to use the name of the party guaranteed for the recovery thereof. The party guaranteed warrants that such rights of subrogation shall rest in the company unaffected by any act of the party guaranteed; but such subrogation and transfer shall be in subordination to the claim of said party guaranteed to receive and be fully paid the amount of principal and interest and other moneys, if any there be, secured by said mortgage.

3. This policy may be assigned to any person to whom the said mortgage may be transferred, and in case of foreclosure of said mortgage to the purchaser at foreclosure sale, but no such assignment shall be valid unless the consent of the company shall be endorsed hereon. Payment, discharge or satisfaction of the said indebtedness secured by the said mortgage, except by foreclosure, or except in case the owner of said indebtedness acquires title to the property by deed in satisfaction of the indebtedness in lieu of foreclosure, shall fully terminate, avoid and annul this policy and all liability of the company hereunder.

4. Nothing contained in this policy shall be construed as a guarantee against defects or incumbrances created subsequent to the date hereof; nor will this company be liable in any event for any loss or damage arising from the refusal of any party to purchase said mortgage or the indebtedness secured thereby.

5. Loss or damage by reason of special taxes or special assessments which have not been confirmed by a Court of Record, conveyances or agreements not of record at the date of this policy, or mechanics' liens when no notice thereof appears of record are not covered by it.

6. It shall be the duty of the party guaranteed, within thirty days after learning of any claim of title, incumbrance or defect, not excepted in this policy, and before paying or settling for the same, to notify the company in writing of the existence of such claim, incumbrance or defect; and in case any suit or proceeding shall be commenced founded on any such claim, incumbrance or defect, the company shall have the right, at its option, to pay to the party guaranteed the amount then remaining unpaid on the said indebtedness, together with any other moneys secured by said mortgage, and shall thereupon be entitled to an assignment and transfer of said indebtedness and of all instruments evidencing and securing the same, and such payment shall terminate all liability under this policy, such right of payment, however, to be exercised within ninety days after the party guaranteed shall notify the company in writing of the pendency of such suit or proceeding.

7. A statement in writing of any loss or damage for which it is claimed this company is liable shall be furnished to the company within sixty days after such loss or damage, and no right of action shall accrue under this policy, until thirty days after such statement shall have been furnished, and no recovery shall be had under this policy unless action shall be commenced thereon within one year after the expiration of said last mentioned period of thirty days; and a failure to furnish such statement of loss or damage and to commence such action within the times hereinbefore specified, shall be a conclusive bar against the maintenance of any action under this policy.

8. All payments under this policy shall reduce the amount guaranteed pro tanto, and no payment can be demanded without producing the policy for endorsement of such payment. If the policy be lost or destroyed, indemnity must be furnished to the satisfaction of the company.

9. Nothing contained in this policy shall be construed as a guarantee (1) against the consequences of any law, ordinance or governmental regulation (including building and "zoning" ordinances) limiting or regulating the use or enjoyment of the property herein described, or the character, dimensions or location of any improvement erected or to be erected thereon, or (2) against the consequences of the exercise or attempted exercise of "police power" over said property, or (3) against the consequences of the violation of the Federal and State Prohibition laws so-called, or, (4) against loss or damage by reason of any violation of an act passed by the Legislature of the State of Illinois relating to alcoholic liquors, approved January 31, 1934, and effective February 1, 1934.

Conditions and Stipulations of this Policy.

1. The Chicago Title and Trust Company shall have the right to, and will, at its own cost and charges, defend the party guaranteed and the trustee in this policy named in all actions of ejectment or other action or proceeding founded upon a claim of title, incumbrance or defect which existed or is claimed to have existed prior in date to this policy and not excepted herein; reserving, however, the option of settling the claim or paying this policy in full; and the payment or tender of payment to the full amount of this policy shall determine all liability of this company thereunder. In case any such action or proceeding shall be begun, it shall be the duty of the party guaranteed and said trustee at once to notify the company thereof in writing, and secure to it, when practicable, the right to defend such action or proceeding, and to give all reasonable assistance therein. If such notice shall not be given to the company within ten days after the service of the first summons or other process in such action or proceeding, then all liability of this company for any loss or damage on account of the adverse result of such action or proceeding shall cease and be determined; provided, however, that failure to notify shall in no case prejudice the claim of the party guaranteed if neither said party nor said trustee shall be a party to such action or proceeding, nor served with summons therein, nor have any knowledge of such action or proceeding.

3. Payment, discharge or satisfaction of the said indebtedness secured by the said trust deed, except by foreclosure, shall fully terminate, avoid and annul this policy and all liability of the company hereunder.

4. Nothing contained in this policy shall be construed as a guarantee against defects or incumbrances created subsequent to the date hereof, nor will this company be liable in any event for any loss or damage arising from the refusal of any party to purchase said indebtedness or the evidences thereof.

5. Loss or damage by reason of special taxes or special assessments which have not been confirmed by a Court of Record, conveyances or agreements not of record at the date of this policy, or mechanics' liens when no notice thereof appears of record are not covered by it.

6. It shall be the duty of the party guaranteed, within thirty days after learning of any claim of title, incumbrance or defect not excepted in this policy, and before paying or settling for the same, to notify the company in writing of the existence of such claim, incumbrance or defect; and in case any suit or proceeding shall be commenced founded on any such claim, incumbrance or defect, the company shall have the right, at its option, to pay to the party guaranteed the amount then remaining unpaid on the said indebtedness, together with any other moneys secured by said trust deed, and shall thereupon be entitled to an assignment and transfer of said indebtedness and of all instruments evidencing and securing the same, and such payment shall terminate all liability under this policy; such right of payment, however, to be exercised within ninety days after the party guaranteed shall notify the company in writing of the pendency of such suit or proceeding.

8. All payments under this policy shall reduce the amount guaranteed pro tanto, and no payment can be demanded without producing the policy for endorsement of such payment. If the policy be lost or destroyed, indemnity must be furnished to the satisfaction of the company.

9. Nothing contained in this policy shall be construed as a guarantee (1) against the consequences of any law, ordinance or governmental regulation (including building and "zoning" ordinances) limiting or regulating the use or enjoyment of the property herein described, or the character, dimensions or location of any improvement erected or to be erected thereon, or (2) against the consequences of the exercise or attempted exercise of "police power" over said property.

I CERTIFY that I have carefully examined, agreeably to the Regulations of the Navy, the above-named recruit, and find that, in my opinion, he is free from all bodily defects and mental infirmity which would, in any way, disqualify him from performing the duties of his rating, and that he has stated to me that he has no disease concealed or likely to be inherited.

F.C.HEINAN, Lt.MC-V(S)USNR, Examining Surgeon.

For and in consideration of the pay or wages due to the ratings which may from time to time be assigned me during the continuance of my service, I agree to and with W.CLAUS (NAME OF COMMANDING OFFICER) of the United States Navy, as follows:

First: To enter the service of the Navy of the United States and to report to such station or vessel of the Navy as I may be ordered to join, and to the utmost of my power and ability discharge my several services or duties and be in everything comformable and obedient to the several requirements and lawful commands of the officers who may be placed over me.

Second: I oblige and subject myself to serve { 2 years from 23 Feb. , 1944 during minority until , 1

unless sooner discharged by proper authority, and on the conditions provided by the act of Congress of March 3, 1875, as follows:

SEC. 1422. That it shall be the duty of the commanding officer of any fleet, squadron, or vessel acting singly, when on service, to send to an Atlantic or to a Pacific port of the United States as their enlistment may have occurred on either the Atlantic or Pacific Coast of the United States, in some public or other vessel, all petty officers and persons of inferior ratings desiring to go there at the expiration of their terms of enlistment, or as soon thereafter as may be, unless, in his opinion, the detention of such persons for a longer period should be essential to the public interests, in which case he may detain them, or any of them until the vessel to which they belong shall return to such Atlantic or Pacific port. All persons enlisted without the limits of the United States may be discharged, on the expiration of their enlistment, either in a foreign port or in a port of the United States, or they may be detained as above provided beyond the term of their enlistment; and that all persons sent home, or detained by a commanding officer, according to the provisions of this act, shall be subject in all respects to the laws and regulations for the government of the Navy until their return to an Atlantic or Pacific port and their regular discharge; and all persons so detained by such officer, or reentering to serve until the return to an Atlantic or Pacific port of the vessel to which they belong shall in no case be held in the service more than thirty days after their arrival in said port; and that all persons who shall be so detained beyond their terms of enlistment, or who shall after the termination of their enlistment, voluntarily reenter to serve until the return to an Atlantic or Pacific port of the vessel to which they belong and their regular discharge therefrom, shall receive for the time during which they are so detained or shall so serve beyond their original terms of enlistment, an addition of one-fourth of their former pay: Provided, That the shipping articles shall hereafter contain the substance of this section.

In the event of war or National emergency declared by the President to exist during my term of service, I oblige and subject myself to serve until six months after the end of the war or National emergency if so required by the Secretary of the Navy unless I voluntarily reenlist or extend my enlistment. I understand that when so detained the addition of one-quarter pay as specified in Section 1422, Revised Statutes, is not applicable.

I also oblige myself, during such service, to comply with and be subject to such laws, regulations, and articles for the government of the Navy as are or shall be established by the Congress of the United States or other competent authority, and to submit to treatment for the prevention of smallpox, typhoid (typhoid prophylaxis), and to such other preventive measures as may be considered necessary by naval authorities.

Third: I am of the legal age to enlist; I have never deserted from the United States Navy, Army, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard; I have never been discharged from the United States Service or other service on account of disability or through sentence of either civilian or military court; and I have never been discharged from any service, civil or military, except with good character and for the reasons given by me to the recruiting officer prior to enlistment. I am not a member of the Naval Reserve, Naval Militia, Marine Corps Reserve, National Guard, or Army Reserve.

Fourth: I understand that upon enlistment in the Naval Reserve, or upon transfer or assignment thereto, I may be ordered to active duty in time of war or when in the opinion of the President a National emergency exists, and that I may be required to perform active duty throughout the war or until the National emergency ceases to exist.

Fifth: I understand that if I become a candidate for the Naval Academy and fail to pass the entrance examination, I will be returned to general service.

Sixth: I have had this contract fully explained to me, I understand it, and certify that no promise of any kind has been made to me concerning assignment to duty, or promotion during my enlistment.

Oath of Allegiance: I, Frederick Matthew Hintz do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the United States of America, and that I will serve them honestly and faithfully against all their enemies whomsoever, and that I will obey the orders of the President of the United States and the orders of the officers appointed over me, according to the rules and articles for the government of the Navy.

And I do further swear (or affirm) that all statements made by me as now given in this record are correct.

Dear Carol,

Thanks for your long and very informative letter. Sorry I havent written back sooner, but this last year was completely upside down for me!

I hope your mom and dad are doing fine. I sure wish we could get together more often. It seems the older we get, the harder it gets to see each other. I havent seen Aunt June, Lynn, absolutely no one for a long time! Isnt that disgraceful after growing up together as we did – and now nothing!

Your daughters seem to be developing real fine? I bet you're really proud of them, and can't wait til they're out there earning 'real' money! Ha! You must send pictures of your group, especially the baby, Michael (He he!).

Your mom and dad dont have to stop traveling, all they have to do is find "someone" that could be hired for a nominal fee to drive their car. I'm sure in this day many people would love the opportunity to drive to Chara Illinois, New Jersey or whatever, and get a small fee on top of it (Man or Woman!) – Me!!

Well, I suppose you're wondering why I'm out here in Seattle. Well, little over a year ago I started seeing a guy (Joseph Tylenda) that I had first gone out with 10 yrs ago when I was going thru the divorce. We had gone together then for 8 MOS. and it was great, but we both thought it was too early for any thing serious and broke off temporarily. He wanted a younger girl + new family – both of which I couldn't help with.

Joe helped to renovate my house so I could put it up for sale, lent me thousands of dollars for repairs, and was a total joy to have around. Because of his job with the Federal government having changed somewhat, after 16 yrs, He had to transfer here to Wa. in Aug. Well, soon after we decided we didn't want to wait another 10 years to be together, and since Jim was living with his dad now, and Virginia was totally for moving to Wa, and the house was sold, I decided yes yes!! So here I am. It's a great adventure, I have a job as a Marketing Consultant 25 hrs/week + earn as much as I did in Illinois 40 hs/wk, Virginia loves her school and friends, and we're site-seeing everywhere, and Joe is spoiling us rotten!

Virginia and I drove out here just before Christmas - 4½ days, and that was quite exciting. We used my station wagon, and filled it up with clothes, and a small 2' travelling x-mas tree! Hehe!

We will probably be moving from here in Aug because Joe is requesting another transfer (he doesn't like the people he's working with), and we're hoping W. Va will be the place he ends up with, it's one hour from Pittsburgh where his relatives live and his mom.

If you send me another form to fill out, I promise to do it this time. The other one is packed somewhere in storage in Illinois.

Well, take care, and write again soon, it was great hearing from you.

Love,
Diane

Feb 7, 1992

Dear Carol & Lee;

Hi how are you? We wanted to thank you for the papers you sent it was very interesting. Were sending you $25.00 to pay a little for all the work & time you put into finding this all out.

Were going by Donalds tommorow & uncle Will is going ice fishing with Don.

Its turning cold again but its been a real mild winter. What have you been doing besides working on family tree.

Dick Rickey was looking into things & found his 1st wife was related to the Kysers.

We went to Dons on Sat & had a nice visit & Sandy came over & we drove by Susans house. Jan came over & we had a nice birthday party it was Jans birthday Feb 8 - Sue Feb 18 - Sandy Jan 24 - so we sang for all three.

It was interesting to read about the ships Uncle Will also was on the 910 & the 700.

When do you get the time to find all these things out?

Don't know when we'll get to see you as whenever we were going to come down your folks were going away.

Well take care, say hi to the girls & your little boy.

Love

Uncle Will & Aunt Eve

Dear Carol,

Hi! Loved receiving the information about our family history. Once I read through your information it made me remember a project I had to do for school. I thought this project was one that I had kept somewhere... The question was, where did I keep it. I searched & finally stumbled upon it in an old file box. I remember that I had to write a school paper about people during the mid 1800's. I had no idea what to write about and can remember so clearly sitting downstairs on Grandma's couch trying to be creative & write this paper. I became frustrated because I didn't know much about that time period. Grandma had asked me what was the matter so I explained this project to her. She said," Oh I can tell you a story about that time period." So she did! I made a copy of my project for your review. Please keep in ~~my~~ mind the dates have been changed to reflect my school project. However, I believe the entire story to be TRUE and was told to me by Grandma Hintz. Hopefully, this won't confuse you, or maybe there is something that might help you. Keep in mind, I wrote this paper back in 1972. Sorry it took so long to return this information to you! Good luck in your search.

History 201
Period 4
May 21, 1972

by Elizabeth Mueller.
year of Sept 1855

(My name is Sheryl Hint and I changed my name to Elizabeth Gehring)

My maiden name is Elizabeth Gehring. My dad was a minister and when I was very young (about six years old) & my mother and father died. I was born March, 23, 1855 and had one brother whose name was William. Since our parents had died we were put in an orphanage. It was a Lutheran orphanage. That was the only orphanage around that part of Germany. By the way I was born and raised in Mecklandberg in the southern part of Germany. The orphanage didn't have a lot of money so what they had was all put to good use. I always use to wish I could fix up the orphanage my way. But, I couldn't because I didn't own it.

NOT TRUE → Reflects my Birthday

Later in life when I was about eighteen I was shopping in town, for the orphanage, and met a very nice young fellow named John Mueller. As the years went by we grew to be very fond of each other. He was a very good Cabinet maker and carpenter. He was always busy traveling from town to town to seek work. It was required of him to keep a traveling book which was signed by all the people he did work for. I stayed on at the orphanage to help take care of the chores and the small children. When I was about twenty John proposed to me and we were married in a small church.

We worked to save up enough money to go to America. In the meantime we had a baby daughter named Louise. She was about two months old when we had saved up enough money to go to America We left the first part of June in NOT TRUE → 1855. Of course, I had to quit my job. It was very hard for me to leave because I'd lived there practically all my life. I've seen so many kids come and go.

We were finally all situated on the boat and sailing for America. We were on some kind of sail boat. Because, if the wind was right we made good time but if the wind shifted we lost time that came to be disappointing. If I could ~~of~~ have improved this type of sail boat I would ~~of~~ have put ~~on~~ a ship in place of the sail boat. It took us so long to get to America that my baby got very sick and died. I became very upset If we could have gone to America by ship we could have been there in less than half the time it took us to get there by sail boat. My baby probably wouldn't ~~of~~ have gotten that sick.

NOT TRUE

We finally arrived in America in August of 1855. We landed on the northeastern coast of America. We took a stage coach to Chicago where John did his cabinet work and made enough

Every once and a while we would send a little bit of money to the orphanage to help them. I really had a strong feeling towards the teachers and the ladies who always helped out at the orphanage. My husband said I had one problem that was I was lonely. But then I was blessed with a daughter Elizabeth and a few years later we had a son whom we called William

Many times we had a desire to go back to Germany but we didnt because we had the thoughts of loosing our other children. I couldnt go through that again.

I would have loved to go back in time to change the ways of some of the people living around the orphanage because some of the ladies wouldn't want their kids to play with some of the kids from the orphanage. I think that was very mean. I also wish I could have changed having my brother come to America right away instead of waiting so long. My family grew to be very healthy and wealthy.

...and we're both pleased and glad we got him!

"I'LL BE SEEING YOU"

I am at rest so don't cry. It will be easier as time goes by. I've done my best to live a good life. For I knew if I did, I could be with Christ. As my body lies here, it's only a shell. God has called me home and my job I've done well. Now I'm happy and very content. For the things I've done wrong, I repent. You know and I know that its hard on earth. So you should not cry at death, but at birth. I have no worries pains or fears. Because I'm with God, so dry your tears. I love you all and this is what I want you to do. Put God first in your life and I'll be seeing you.

In Loving Memory of Margaret Pozsgay

Whether dealing with atoms, guinea pigs or humans the contest is to penetrate the secrets of nature by arranging facts in a logical sequence. Many attempts fail, but well documented failures help scientists who follow. Satisfaction is supreme in scientific medical research when victory is shared by countless potential victims of such diseases as tuberculosis and leprosy.*

What is behind me is known; what is beyond me is the unknown. What I clearly perceive is that the unknown is infinitely greater than all that I now know. As I zero in on a fragment of the truth ahead of me, I know I must keep a proper perspective of what I think the entire truth must be. At this point, the faith I have come to develop in ultimate reality or truth, comes into harmony with my scientific endeavors. I believe that a divine "thread" runs through all of reality, not only in theology, but in science also.*

The two of us would like to take this opportunity to thank each and every person here today. All of you, in some special way have made a distinct impression on us...otherwise, you would not be here! We feel honored to have grown up with such a strong, supportive group of individuals.

Our families have been our rocks, teaching us important morals and attributes and giving of their time and love unconditionally.

Our friends have molded us and allowed us to become the persons we were destined to become. Traveling down life's bumpy path, we have learned essential life-lessons together that have made all the difference.

You have laughed with us cried with us cringed with us sighed with us. You celebrated in our greatest victories and comforted us in our most devastating defeats. We are forever grateful for all that you have been to us and will continue to be.

May God continue to bless us all!

Virginia & Bob
